CHARACTER HISTORY

Crystal is the daughter of Luc Lambour, born into a noble family of High Elves known for their unwavering dedication to the elven military. From a young age, it was clear that Crystal possessed a rare talent for magic, quickly mastering even the most complex spells and earning the respect of her peers and teachers alike. However, her idyllic childhood was shattered when her father succumbed to temptation and cheated on her mother with a lowly kitchen goblin. In the aftermath of the scandal, Crystal was forced to flee the elven kingdom with her father, pursued by angry in-laws and facing an uncertain future in the uncharted wilderness of the island of Taldora. Despite the chaos and danger of their new life, Crystal's prodigious talent for magic proved to be a valuable asset to her and her father as they carved out a new existence on Taldora. With her knowledge of arcane arts, she was able to manipulate the elements and fend off the beasts that roamed the wilds of the island, ensuring their survival and safety. Determined to prove herself to her family and her people, Crystal honed her magical abilities and continued to push the boundaries of what was possible with her powers. With her father by her side, she embraced the challenges and opportunities that awaited them on Taldora, always striving to become the best mage she could be.
